

It's National Pollinator Week!

This week is National Pollinator Week! Our backyard and side gardens are part of the Wild for Pollinators program and our echinacea, bee balm, milkweed, and other flowering plants provide habitat, nectar, and pollen for our small winged friends who ensure our food gets pollinated. Also, the flowers make our backyard a nice place to hang out on breaks!